

David Topham

Chief Executive
CTP

David Topham is a founder shareholder and has been Chief Executive of Manchester-based CTP Ltd, since its formation in 1987. Throughout that time David has led many regeneration initiatives across the UK, concentrating on the office and mixed-use sectors.

CTP works with both development partners and the public sector to deliver key schemes including St Paul's Place, a major award-winning 70,000 sq m in Sheffield city centre; a major regeneration initiative to transform Wakefield's historic waterfront into a 50,000 sq m mixed-use development; the Altrincham-cinema development; Sainsbury's new store in Neston along with affordable housing and a new market square and a 30-acre business park at Pacific Quay in Glasgow, which is located on the former Garden Festival site.

David is a Trustee of Manchester City Art Galleries and is a Board Member of the NW Regional Council of the Princes Trust.
