

John Shepherd

---

Managing Director
Whiteburn Holdings

A Chartered Civil Engineer, John has worked in a variety of consultancy, contracting and now development roles, as MD of Whiteburn Holdings – a family owned property development and investment company, based in Edinburgh.

He has instigated a range of successful regeneration projects in Scotland, specializing in adapting abandoned historic or industrial buildings and derelict sites for a range of new uses. This includes The Tun, a conversion of a former brewery site and BCO winner of Commercial Workplace 2003. John sat on the BCO National Judging Panel in 2007.

John is also director of a charitable housing company based in Dundee.
