

Neil Thompson

Portfolio Director

Great Portland Estates

Neil Thompson is Portfolio Director at Great Portland Estates plc having previously been at Derwent Valley Holdings plc and Legal and General, and is a member of the Royal Institute of Chartered Surveyors.

Neil has 18 years of direct experience working for Central London investor/developers and joined GPE to establish a focused development business for the group. GPE now has a development programme of over 2.9 million sq ft with many successful projects completed to date.

GPE are seen as a high quality developer with key skills producing buildings with a design focus, which are appropriate for the target occupier market. Neil is Chairman of the London and South East Judging Panel for the British Council for Offices and serves on the Management Board for the BCO also. Neil is a member of the Westminster Property Association.