

Tony Hordon

Director of Business Space
DTZ

Tony has 18 years experience with Office Agency and Development at DTZ, having practised in Leeds, the West End of London and currently Newcastle.

Tony has extensive experience of Agency and Development work and principally providing advice to International Corporate, National clients and Regional clients on masterplanning, pre-development design, marketing, property disposal and acquisitions. Tony is a visiting lecturer at the University of Northumbria and a member of the BCO Northern Chapter Committee.