

JOIN A BCO REGIONAL COMMITTEE

The BCO's mission is to research, develop and communicate best practice in all aspects of the office sector. It delivers this by providing a forum for the discussion and debate of relevant issues.

To support this key objective the BCO has different committees which work under a number of remits including research, regional and international specific areas and the next generation of BCO membership.

WHAT'S INVOLVED

The primary role of the Regional Committees is to promote the BCO regionally, by focusing on topics of local interest. They do this by organising a variety of activities, which are designed to complement the national work of the BCO. Activities include, but are not limited to:

- Promote the BCO to a wider regional audience.
- Deliver a varied calendar of topical talks and office tours across the region to share best practice.
- Disseminate knowledge through the regional launch of published BCO research.
- Encourage and foster collaboration with a view to creating and inputting into cutting-edge research documents, fitting into the wider BCO objectives.
- Deliver an annual regional awards programme to promote excellence in office space.
- Engage with the national Committees, Management Executive and to influence BCO strategy.

Those wishing to join a regional committee must be members of the BCO and able to attend regular committee meetings (frequency depends on region but is generally monthly or bi-monthly).

Membership of each committee is reviewed on a regular basis to ensure that there is a good balance between the necessary skill sets required by each group. We cannot guarantee that you will be placed on a committee, but all applications will be put forward when a space becomes available.
